

JOB OPENING:
FINANCIAL REGULATORY ANALYST

The Tennessee Attorney General's Office is seeking applications for the position of Financial Regulatory Analyst. Salary is dependent on education, experience and qualifications.

The Financial Regulatory Analyst should possess experience in public utility accounting. Candidate must work well with others, possess strong analytic skills, communicate effectively, work well under pressure, and be able to testify on complex accounting issues as an expert witness in a courtroom environment. Experience in public utility accounting, knowledge of regulatory accounting rules, public utility economics, and ratemaking principles preferred.

Position responsibilities include:

- (1) Prepare and/or supervise the preparation of appropriate responses to requests for analysis of the components of cost of service of a public utility, including salary and wages, employee pensions and benefits, other operating expenses such as depreciation, taxes, insurance, energy cost and investment related cost, of public utilities via memos, testimony, affidavits, or email;
- (2) Prepare and/or supervise the preparation of public utility revenue forecasts;
- (3) Review daily docket filings at the Tennessee Regulatory Authority ("TRA") drawing an initial decision of relative importance of the filing;
- (4) Assist in the timely analysis of matters scheduled before the TRA and prepare attorneys to address appropriate items on the agenda;
- (5) Review the TRA docket filings, determine if intervention is appropriate, and write (or review) memo of recommendation;
- (6) Assist in reviewing rate case filings; prepare intervention materials, testimony, exhibits, and other materials; and participate in settlement discussions by preparing exhibits and providing advice; and
- (7) Other duties and responsibilities as assigned.

Qualifications:

- Bachelor's degree in accounting or economics or equivalent business experience
- Certified public accountant preferred
- Excellent communication skills
- Strong financial analytical skills and forecasting capabilities using MS Excel

Application procedures: Send resume, list of three references and writing sample to Personnel Officer, Office of the Tennessee Attorney General, attn: Financial Regulatory Analyst, POBox 20207, Nashville, TN 37202-0207. Or submit by E-mail to agresume@state.tn.us in Word or Wordperfect format and put "Financial Regulatory Analyst Position" in the subject line.

Equal Opportunity Employer